

Ti'Juana Hardwell

*Owner, Mamarazzi
Communications*

Ti'Juana Hardwell is an entrepreneur, communications strategist, and community leader dedicated to empowering businesses. She began her entrepreneurial journey in 2011 with an independent magazine, later founding Mamarazzi Communications, LLC. Since then, her marketing agency has helped hundreds of businesses elevate their brands, earning awards and recognition along the way.

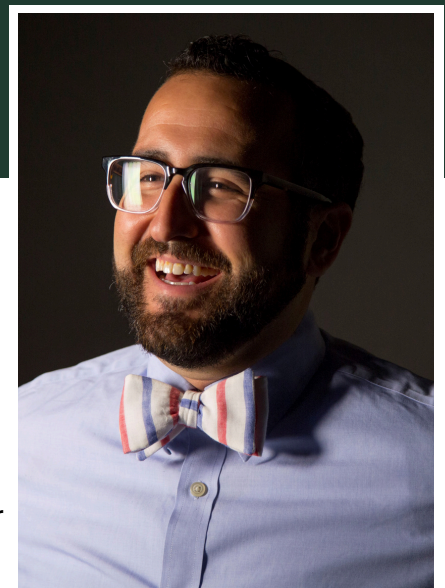

Beyond business, Ti'Juana is a passionate advocate for community and professional growth. She actively serves with the Public Relations Society of America's Kansas Chapter, Wichita Urban Professionals, Visit Wichita's DEIA Advisory Council, and ICT SOS, contributing to initiatives that promote equity, professional development, and social impact.

Committed to both entrepreneurship and service, Ti'Juana continues to create meaningful change through her work, leadership, and mentorship. She is also a proud mother to Tiana Hardwell, the reigning Miss Juneteenth ICT.

Jamil Malone

Category Intelligence Manager at Cargill

Jamil Malone is a Category Intelligence Manager at Cargill, helping retailers understand their full potential in the meat department. His two passions are using data to tell stories and building up his community. He currently serves as incoming chair of the Wichita Symphony Orchestra board of directors and past chair of the board of Orthodox Christian Fellowship.

Taben Azad

*Wichita Public Schools and Board Treasurer for National Association of Asian American
Professionals Wichita Chapter*

Taben Azad currently serves as the Director of Budgeting for Wichita Public Schools and is the Board Treasurer for the National Association of Asian American Professionals Wichita Chapter. He previously served on the boards of the Wichita Asian Association, Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity Inc, and Rise Up for Youth.

Jennifer White

Founder and Executive Director, ICT SOS

Jennifer White is the Founder and Executive Director of ICT SOS. The organization has been the recipient of local, state, and national recognition including the Volunteer Leadership Group Award from the National Children's Alliance and the Director's Community Leadership Award from the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Jennifer also serves on the Human Trafficking Advisory Board for the Kansas Attorney General's Office as well as the Human Trafficking Working Group for the US Attorney's Office. She is a statewide presenter for the Children's Alliance of Kansas. Jen is the mom of 2 awesome kids, a lover of people, tacos, and Mister Rogers.